

Do you know what you are trading?

Trading is simple and boring. There are levels of trading that you have to swim across before you reap benefits to your potential. We trade step 1 and if we keep on learning by mistakes we could reach step 7

- 1) You start trading someone Tips
- 2) You trade the advice of best known Traders, TV channels, Self-Proclaimed trader
- 3) You trade Stocks/Commodities/Currency
- 4) You trade Fundamentals/Technical
- 5) You trade your own rules
- 6) You trade too many rules
- 7) You trade only few rules
- 8) You trade general market leave alone stock picking
- 9) You end up trading your own belief about the direction of the market.

So what a good trader does is to form his opinion about the market and trade them.
